BRIG SUSHIL BHASIN

Master Trainer ★ Motivational Speaker

★ Transformational Coach

Brigadier Sushil Bhasin is a Master Trainer, Transformational Coach, and Motivational Speaker. He is passionate about making a difference. He loves achieving and contributing to outcome-focused results.

His greatest happiness stems from making people's lives easier, happier, and more meaningful. He achieves this quest using the medium of experiential learning. He empowers his learners through transformational seminars, customized indoor sessions, energizing outbound programs, and insightful one-to-one personalized coaching.

During his 34 years in the army, Brigadier Bhasin was endowed with a rich and varied experience in training in varying terrains and different pedagogies. He also served as the Chairman of Army Public School, Bareilly from 2002-2004. During this tenure, he developed a great passion for education and fell in love in developing children.

Taking his insights and passion to the next level, he took a conscious decision to hang up his uniform and step out of the army life. He then devoted his life to making a difference to others through example, education, and empowerment. Extreme passion, innovation, creativity, and a deep sense of involvement in customized pre and post work has been his secret weapons.

Brigadier Bhasin works with C-Suite executives, Human Resource leaders, and Training managers to create powerful growth hacks for individual contributors, team leaders, and senior management.

Because of his customized workshops, teams have fast tracked growth and improved team appreciation, morale, and performance. He has chiseled leaders to impact real change that improves business and bottom line results. His programs are designed to help gain pristine clarity in work and life, reduce stress, and increase productivity.

Partnering with Educational Promoters, Principals, and Teachers of residential, IB schools, and premier institutions; he shares his knowledge and imparts leadership programs for Educational Leaders. Designed to support and celebrate educators, these developmental programs help raise the bar for what's possible with student achievement through his teacher leadership programs.

His programs have helped principals and teachers develop leadership skills which have resulted in higher emotional and intellectual engagement with students. They have also enabled teachers to lead with more passion and poise. He strongly believes that teachers and parents need to adopt an integrated holistic approach to provide children with the best guidance and support they deserve.

Brigadier Bhasin has been living his dream of making a difference to others. In the last 13 years, he has conducted 550+ programs on leadership and team building in India, across Americas, Middle East, and South East Asia.

In the education domain, he has reached out to 160+ principals, 3000+ teachers, and about 25000+ children.

Brigadier Bhasin, with his rich 46 years of Experience and Expertise, is also a Master Trainer for young, aspirational, as well as seasoned trainers. Integrated w-holistic approach is his style. Being tech savvy, he incorporates technology, indoor + outdoor facilitation, and psychometric instruments in his workshops.

His signature seminar Train the Super Trainer, (TTST) has touched the lives of 1,000+ aspiring trainers across Mumbai, Bangalore, Chennai, Delhi, and Hyderabad. His mission is to groom and develop 5 national level trainers by December 31, 2021.

Brigadier Bhasin's first book 'Design Your Life' has been an amazing success across the world. He lives in Mumbai, India. Loves technology and at the age of 66, when most of the granddads shun technology, he endorses by personal example. Result-focused, Energetic and Knowledgeable best describe him. He lives by the quote of Buckminster Fuller, "Your Life does not belong to you. It belongs to the Universe." And he likes to spell it as 'Youniverse'.
